Introducing our KEMBA

KBS is a non-profit institution that has been established with a new educational vision aimed at long-term sustainability. The renowned marketing expert Philip Kotler envisions new marketing as a strategic process involving all stakeholders to generate a positive and sustainable impact while considering people, the planet, and profit. We aim to replicate the KBS concept in every country globally.

Kotler
Business School

We are pioneers in bringing education to the Megaverse, innovating the concept of education and training by disconnecting it from its physical location. We welcome learners from far distances and offer them a path to the new future – Hello Tomorrow. KBS is proud to be the first business school in the world to be established in the Megaverse.

Global Virtual Campuses

Through partnerships with leading institutions, Kotler Impact offers a dedicated network of global virtual campuses, each a center of business excellence.

KBS campuses are strategically located in the Americas, Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia. KBS global network for doctoral, masters and bachelor programs are the world's largest and most immersive network, providing unparalleled access to a wide spectrum of educational and career prospects for future leaders

KBS is a non-profit institution that has been Kotler Impact as the brainchild of the Father of Modern Marketing, Dr. Philip Kotler, the world's foremost expert on strategic marketing and the Founder & Chairman of the World Marketing Summit Group, along with other enterprising initiatives. With a vision like none other to integrate sustainability across enterprises, Kotler Impact is a strategic marketing community seeking to employ a sustainable global environment and economic development through education, training, and holistic measures.

Kotler Impact has one belief – to build a generation that is sustainable, evolutionary, and transformable.

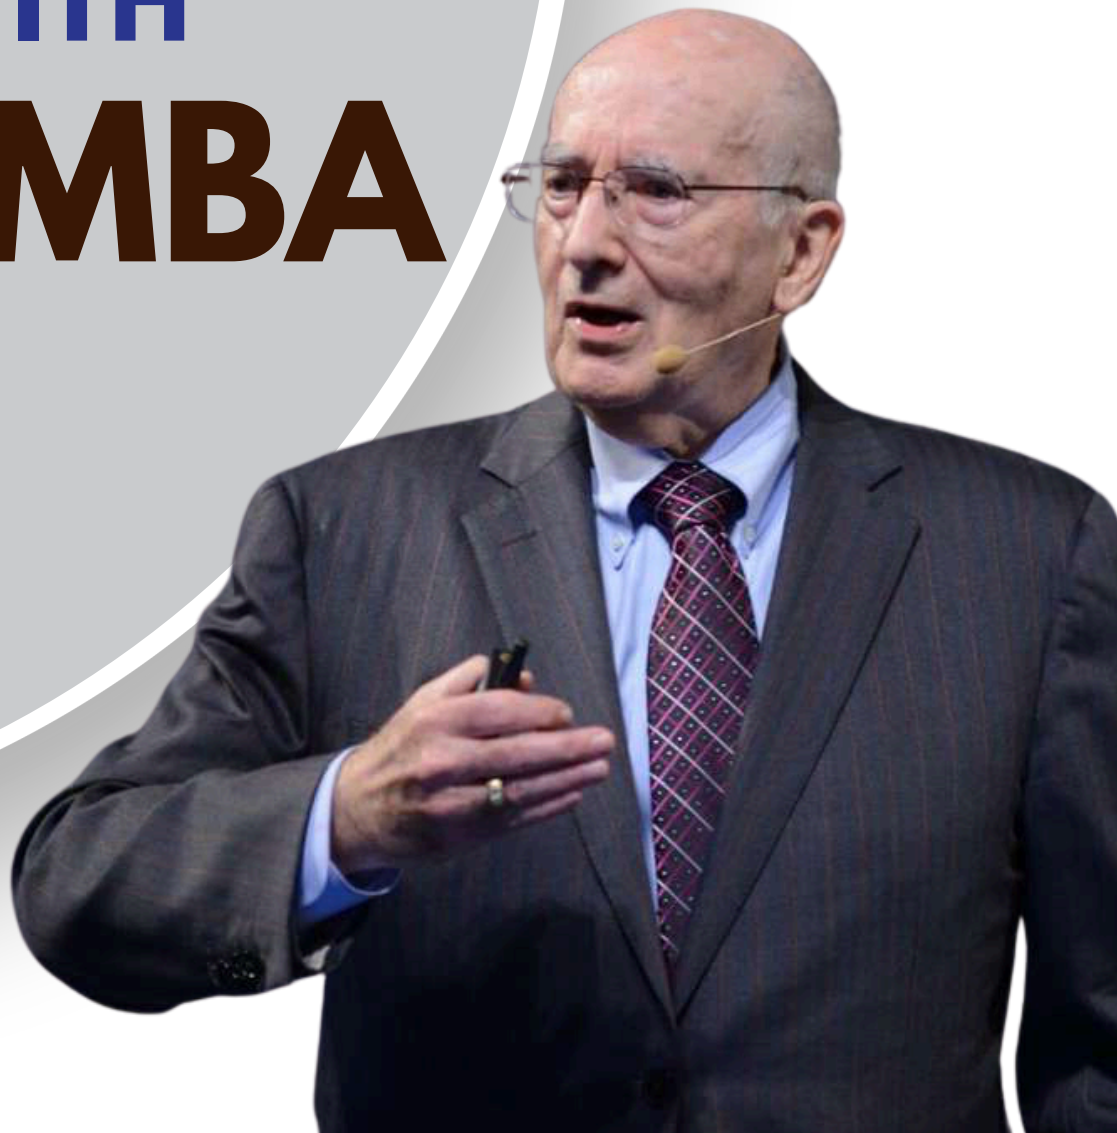

Their visionary ambitions are achieved through the accumulation of marketplace diversity, the implementation of fundamental educational resources, and the commitment of pioneers in business and professional leaders who strive for excellence.
